Last Week's Program

United States Post Office- Michael Hummel and Carl Nedved. With the decrease in pieces of mail being sent in recent history, the USPS is trying to come up with ways to reinvent itself. Customers can sign up for Informed Delivery, this lets them know what to expect in their mail box. There is also a big push for Advertising Mail, this has a 6 to 8% response rate and the recipients can be tailored to the needs of the business.

Today's Program:

One Vision- Sue Platts

20-Fellowship
